Terms and Conditions

- The 'Early Bird Special' enables fee-paying students to reserve a spot on the popular Johor Bahru day trip if they complete their application for GSP and make all necessary payments by 2359 hours on 28 February 2025 (Singapore Standard Time GMT+8). Spots are available on a first-come-first-serve basis and students who are successfully allocated a spot will be informed by June 2025.

SMU reserves the right to terminate or modify the 'Early Bird Special' without prior notification if the trip is fully subscribed or cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.

- SMU reserves the right to
  - cancel a course in the event of insufficient enrollment. In such cases, affected applicants will be reassigned to an alternative course, which may not be their first preference. All fees paid to SMU are non-refundable if an applicant chooses to reject the reallocation.
  - withdraw an applicant at any time if the applicant fails to comply with the stipulated deadlines and payment requirements. All fees paid to SMU prior to the administrative withdrawal are non-refundable.
- All applicants must have a passport with a minimum validity of 6 months from the date of arrival before submitting their application. Applicants who do not meet this criterion should only apply after obtaining their new passport.
- All applicants are responsible for all associated costs and deadlines, including, but not limited to, applications and payments. SMU does not have the authority to intervene or appeal on behalf of any student if they miss any deadlines imposed by external organisations, such as ICA.

Application Guide

There are two parts to the GSP application and the whole process may take up to 15 minutes.

- Part 1: Completion and submission of application form
- Part 2: Payment for application fee

Before you proceed, ensure that you have all the documents in softcopy listed in A and you do not belong to any of the categories listed in B. You will be automatically logged out after 15 minutes of inactivity.

Look out for  in the guide to avoid common errors.

Part 1: Complete and submit your application form (Refer to Pages 3 - 18)

A: Documents Required

- Latest academic transcript or official acceptance letter from home university (in English)
- Photo identification page of a valid passport (minimum 6 months of validity from the date of arrival)
- TOEFL/IELTS test results (results obtained within last 2 years) if English is not the main language of instruction in your home university

Do not submit the GSP application form until you have all the above.

B: Categories of Students

- Pending scholarship or subsidy approval. Submit the application after the scheme is granted.
- Pending passport renewal or application. Submit the application after the new passport is ready.
- Unable to pay the SGD150 application fee via Mastercard/ Visa. Submit the application after you have the card details for payment.
- Unsure of the ability to transfer credits. Submit the application after you have your home university's approval to transfer credits for the GSP course(s).
Note: Your home university is responsible for the advice of your study plan and approval for credit(s) transfer
- Unsure of the ability to use the fund in PSEA (for Singaporean only). Submit the application after you have checked your fund balance.

Do not submit the GSP application form if you belong to any of the above.

Part 2: Make application fee payment (Refer to Pages 19 - 21)

All applicants must pay the SGD150 (non-refundable) application fee upon completion of application. Your application will only be processed after the payment.

You will be informed about the outcome of your application via email within 7 working days after the application fee payment.

*Which session are you applying?

*  Students may apply for only one session, either Session 1 or Session 2

*How many courses are you applying for?

*  Select the number of courses you are applying for

NOTE: Please read the following:

*PLEASE SELECT THE COURSE(S) FROM THE CORRECT SESSION BELOW.

IF YOU ARE APPLYING FOR SESSION 1, PLEASE CHOOSE THE COURSE(S) FROM SESSION 1.

IF YOU ARE APPLYING FOR SESSION 2, PLEASE CHOOSE THE COURSE(S) FROM SESSION 2.

1. Read the course outlines before selecting your preferences.
2. Consider the workload before deciding to take 1 or 2 courses.
3. Confirm credit transfer eligibility with your home university for your chosen courses.
4. Rank courses by preference, listing your top choice first. If your first choice is unavailable, the next option will be allocated, so make sure your second choice is different and one you are prepared to take. Refer to the application guide if needed.
5. Select each course only ONCE; do not repeat selections.
6. If taking 2 courses, you will be allocated one in the AM and one in the PM. Choose a maximum of 2 courses for both the AM and PM sessions.
7. SMU reserves the right to amend, change or cancel a course at any point of time.
8. SMU will endeavour to accommodate applicants with the courses of their choice wherever possible. However, applicants should note that not all requests could be met.

Please select the courses corresponding to the session you are applying for (e.g., Session 1 or Session 2) and rank them in order of preference. For the session you are not applying for, select 'Not Applicable'.

Courses are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. If the first-choice course is full, the second choice will be considered, so students should select more than one option.

Example: Students applying for Session 1.
